SUMMARY OF CHANGES

EDUCATIONAL GOALS

A1000 Area Objective: Apply aerospace power capabilities and officership principles to warfighting.

A1800 Phase Objective: Value officership principles and heritage.

A1820 - PROFESSION OF ARMS

Lesson Objective 1: Value the importance of dedication to the Air Force and the Profession of Arms.

Samples of Behavior:

(L) 1.1 - Explain how the concept of Unlimited Liability applies to you as a member of the United States Armed Forces.

(L) 1.2 - Discuss dedication to the Air Force and the Profession of Arms with others.

(L) 1.3 - Share beliefs concerning dedication to the Air Force and the Profession of Arms with others.

Lesson Description: This faculty lecture explores what it means to be a member of the Air Force and the United States Armed Forces. The lecturer shares a number of personal experiences that help students understand that dedication to the Air Force and the Profession of Arms will often require personal sacrifice. In addition, the presenter shares his or her views on how fulfilling it can be to serve in the United States Armed Forces.

Prerequisites: None

Preparation: None

Optional: N/A

Rationale/Linkage: This lecture provides personal examples of the officership principles discussed in A1830, Patriot; A1840, “What Now, Lieutenant?” and A1850, Distinguished Speaker Series: Officership. Students can use these examples as reference points to illustrate how officership principles apply to warfighting. This lecture also inspires students to continue their life-long learning in the Profession of Arms.
